Where Orphaned and Vulnerable Children Find

Education for Today...Shelter for Tonight...Hope for Eternity

Education for Today – We recognize the need to educate students for the spiritual, ethical, technological, and societal challenges of their generation. We want our graduates to understand the times and pursue excellence in their particular calling for Christ. We teach a Biblical, Christ-centered curriculum that prepares students for the challenges of higher education and life-long learning within the sphere of God’s unique calling on their life.

Shelter for Tonight – We will serve, strengthen, and reunite families whenever possible or shelter children as they wait for a new family whenever reunification is impossible. We will collaborate with family, church, and like-minded resource providers to deliver hope and a future in Christ for educationally marginalized children without one or both parents, or children in families struggling with divorce, pre-adoption adjustment, post-adoption adjustment, homelessness, or other disruptive family troubles.

Hope for Eternity – Humanity is not mere matter. We understand the whole person, both body and soul, as needing reformation. We see even the athletics as an opportunity for educational programs that foster a Christ-like attitude towards competition and sportsmanship. We are a community of scholars unashamedly committed to a Biblical worldview, seeking to educate each student unto the true knowledge of God’s Word, works, and world that each might know God and live by faith the implications of the reign of Jesus Christ over all of His creation.
