

*Where Orphaned and Vulnerable Children Find
Education for Today...Shelter for Tonight...Hope for Eternity*

Dear Prospective Board Member:

Thank you for your willingness to consider service on the Board of Directors for Providence Christian Academy. The Board performs an important collective role in establishing policies, strategic plans, and financial sustainability models for the school. Additionally, the Board hires, supervises, and evaluates the Superintendent who has day-to-day executive leadership responsibility for the school.

We seek to identify individuals who will contribute to the school in the following areas:

- Witness: will clearly articulate a relationship with Jesus Christ, and agree both in doctrine and lifestyle with the Providence Christian Academy Statement of Faith, Lifestyle Statement, Leadership Commitment, Mission, and Philosophy of Education
- Wisdom: will bring to bear an experience and knowledge of policy issues and strategic planning in various aspects of the work of the Board
- Time: will make a sacrifice of time by committing to one monthly board meeting, continuing training, and additional participation as project assignments may require
- Talent: will contribute unique gifting, interests, and skills for the advancement of Providence Christian Academy and the glory of God alone
- Treasure: will support Providence Christian Academy with financial resources as God enables, and actively promote the school in given circle of influence

The PCA Board will be selecting new Board members based on qualities of prospective Board members and the need to have a diverse, multi-skilled team of Board members. The process for filling open Board positions will be as follows:

1. Prospective Board members mail or deliver application, cover letter, and résumé to John M. Jones, Vice-President, Providence Christian Academy, P.O. Box 369, 3583 Scotland Rd, Scotland, PA 17254.
2. PCA Board identifies finalists and schedules interviews with Board Governance Committee.
3. PCA Board Governance Committee interviews finalist candidates.
4. PCA Board selects Board members and notifies all candidates.

Thank you for prayerfully considering your participation on the Board. The Board provides a significant leadership role for Providence Christian Academy; it is exciting to have the opportunity to make it even stronger through your involvement.

Sincerely,
Jeffrey A. Garner, President
Providence Christian Academy
